Article 19 Directors can authorize other directors to attend the board of directors as their proxies. However, they should issue a proxy letter in each instance stating the scope of authorization, and it shall be limited to a single proxy.

Article 20 (Deleted)

Article 21 The remuneration committee determines the remuneration of directors of the Company after considering the extent of their participation in the company's operations and the value of their contribution, and with reference to the industry standards, and then recommended to the board of directors for resolution.

The board of directors of the Company may set up other functional committees as needed for business operations.

Chapter V Managers

Article 22 The Company may appoint managers, and their appointment, dismissal, and remuneration shall be handled in accordance with Article 29 of the Company Act.

Chapter VI Accounting

Article 23 At the end of each fiscal year, the following reports shall be prepared by the board of directors, and be submitted to the shareholders' meeting for acceptance.

1. Business Report.
2. Financial Statements.
3. Proposal for Distribution of Profits or Appropriation of Losses.

Article 24 If there is any profit in a fiscal year, the Company shall distribute no less than 1% of the profit for employees' compensation and shall distribute at a maximum of 1% of the profit as remuneration to directors, provided that the Company's accumulated losses shall have been covered in advance.

The employee compensation in the preceding paragraph may be distributed in the form of shares or in cash, and the employees qualified to receive such compensation may include employees of the parents or subsidiaries of the Company who is deemed to meet certain specific criteria.

Article 24-1 If there is any profit in the Company's annual final accounts, it shall be distributed in the order of tax payments; offset accumulated losses in previous years; and then reserve 10% of the remaining amount as legal reserve. However, this restriction does not apply in the event that the amount of the accumulated legal reserve equals or exceeds the Company's total paid-in capital. In addition, according to the Company's operational needs and the provisions of laws and regulations, when the allocation or reverse of special reserve is utilized, the board of directors will prepare a distribution proposal discussing the distribution of cash dividends from the remaining net profits and retained earnings in previous year. When remaining profits are issued in the form of new shares, they shall be distributed after approved by a resolution from the shareholder's meeting.

If the Company is to distribute all or part of its dividends and bonuses or legal reserve and capital reserve in cash, this shall be authorized by a meeting of the board of directors with a majority of more than two-thirds of the total attendance and a majority of more than half of those in attendance vote in favor of the proposal, and then report to the shareholders' meeting for a resolution.

The Company's dividend policy depends on factors such as its financial structure, operating conditions, and capital budget, taking into account shareholders' interests and the balance of dividends. The distributable profit earnings may be retained at discretion or distributed via stock or cash. It is expected that the dividend distribution quota will be maintained between 10% and 100% of the available profit earnings for the current year. However, the proportion of cash dividend distribution shall not be less than 10% of the total dividend.

Article 25 Matters not covered in these Articles of Incorporation shall be handled in accordance with the Company Act and relevant laws and regulations.

Article 25-1 If the Company intends to cancel the public offering, a resolution of the shareholders' meeting shall be submitted. Furthermore, no change to this provision shall be made during the period of registration on the emerging stock market and during the period of listing on the TWSE/TPEX markets.
